BIG CROP OF PEAS.

Shipments Will Begin Earlier Than

Was Expected:

FREDERICKSBURG, VA., May 12.—
Special.—The shipment of English peas from the Rappanannock Vailey to the Northern markets will begin within the next few days. The crop will be a heavy one, notwithstanding the cool nights and dry spell. R. G. Neale and other large growers in Essex county will probably growers in Essex county will probably begin picking Monday. Shipments will begin a week or ten days earlier than was expected, as it was thought the backward spring would delay the crop.

The Colorado beetle has made its appearance in the Irish potato crop in King George county. Mr. Horace Fenall and Miss Lucy Allen, both of King George county, were mar-ried Thursday in that county. Robert Daggs (colored), who died a few days ago in Stafford county, had reached arkable age, having passed his 110th

Mrs. Alice T. Bussels, formerly of Lancaster county, but for several years the proprietress of "The Irvington," Baltimore, died a few days ago from the effects of a surgical operation in that city.

DUNCAN LEE THE WINNER.

A Richmond Boy of Fifteen Years Gets South Atlantic Co,'s Prize. is stated some weeks ago, the South-

Atlantic Life Insurance Company, of this city, offered a prize of $10 in gold for the design of a Carnival booth to be erected on Broad Street, which should most aptly illustrate the ideas of strength, protection and home enterprise.

Quite a number of designs were submitted, but the committee—Hon. J. Taylor Ellyson, Hon. Samuel L. Kelley and Colonel John S. Harwood, who met yes-terday afternoon, decided that the clever-est and most appropriate was that sub-mitted by Mr. Duncan Lee, aged fifteen, of No. 5111-2 North Fifth Street, this

The booth, in accordance with Mr. Lee's design, has been constructed by the company, and will be on exhibition at No. 809 East Broad Street. The officials decline to divulge the design. Mr. Ellysor expressed great satisfaction at the taste and ingenuity exhibited by the many contestants.

At the Bijon, Manager Wells has booked a show for next week at the Bijou that will be a feature of the Carnival.

Houdinl, who was seen at the Bijou a few weeks ago, turned out to be the preatest performer who had been seen here in vaudeville. His feats were the talk of the city and when he returned to

New York, after the engagement, Mr. Wells was frequently asked, "when will you have Houdini again?" Mr. Wells has secured the wonder-worker for this week, and succeeded in doing so after purchasing his "time" from a New York theatre manager. Houdini, is certainly a wnoderful man. His handcuff secret is a great piece of magic. The young man did not fail to escape from a single pair of irons that the local policemen locked on him, and his trunk trick caused everybody to wonder. Though Houdini is a whole show in himself, Manager Wells whole show in himself, Manager Wells has not secured acts of no consequence to make up the rest of the bill. Every act is a headliner.

Charles E. Grapewin, supported by Miss Anna Chance, will present "Above the Limit," one of the best comedy sketches in raudaville.

in vaudeville.

The Elinore Sisters in "Dangerous Mrs. Delaney," hardly need an introduction. The clever comediennes were a hit at the Bijou early this season.

The Four Emperors of Music have been seen here with the best minstrel organizations as a feature act, but as they joined vaudeville, they have not been South for a seasan or more because they have been kept busy in the northern cities playing at the best vaudeville houses. This act will be one of the features of the bill.

The Flood Brothers have a novelty act

The Flood Brothers have a novelty act that others have tried to copy but have never succeeded. They are originators of acrobatic novelty.

Gracie and Barnett, a specialty sketch team, will be seen in their new act and it is said to be one of the cleverest.

Manager Wells has decided to have matness daily, commencing to-morrow, and the usual night performance will be given at $:15 every night. team, will be seen in their new act and it is said to be one of the cleverest.

Manager Wells has decided to have matness daily, commencing to-morrow, and the usual night performance will be given at 8:15 every night.

CENT. BONDS OF THE COMMON-WEALTH CLUB, MATURING JUNE 1, 1900. $55,000:

WEALTH CLUB, MATURING JUNE
1, 1900, $55,000:
1 The Club has decided to extend its
bonds twenty years.
The Virginia Trust Company will act
for the bondholders, properly stamping
them and attaching the new coupons.
Holders of these bonds, who have been seen, have readily agreed to the extention; as, however, the bonds are somewhat scattered, theis means is adopted to notify all holders of the action of the Club, and the request is made that they communicate with the undersigned at the earliest possible date, stating whether they will extend.
As some of the bonds are known to be held by estates in liquidation, a part of the issue is offered to the public at par
and interest, payable 20 per cent. cash, balance in. two, four, six and eight months.
The bonds are good beyond peradventure, and the coupons are paid regularly, as not only is the physical security of the property ample for the principal, but also the fixed income of the Club far in excess of the annual interest.
Further information will be given upon application.
